The following items must be enclosed with this application:

- 1. A separate sheet of paper with a written description of which questions you wish to have re-evaluated and what you consider to be wrong with the assessment of these question.
Title your motivation "Re-evaluation of exam" and clearly state your name and civic registration number or student ID number. In the statement, please motivate why you believe a re-evaluation is warranted, if necessary, referencing the grading criteria or the exam review done in class. Be as detailed and specific as possible. Please note that the reasons should be obvious.

Please note that the original exam should not be collected from the Student Affairs Office in case of a re-evaluation, instead ask for a copy.

- 2. A copy of the exam or corresponding examination if the Student Affairs Office did not distribute the exam.
In cases where the Student Affairs Office has distributed the exam, the original will be scanned and sent by us directly to the examiner for re-evaluation.
