No further opportunities will be offered to complete the course, in addition to the above occasions.

The examiner is Louise Arvidsson.

Course material is available via the Canvas learning platform in the Student Portal.

In order to be able to complete the examinations, you are required to notify the course coordinator of your email address no later than two weeks before the examination date. Please note that you need to include your student account name or student email, otherwise the course coordinator cannot add you to the Canvas course page. If you no longer have an active student account, you must contact the course coordinator in good time before the examinations. Re-opening the account must then take place in order for you to have access to the course material on the Canvas learning platform.

The examination tasks are completed and submitted according to the examination instructions on the course page on the dates specified above.
